EMBARGOED UNTIL TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD, 9am CET

Vestiaire Collective

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE PARTNERS WITH PHILIPPINE LEROY-BEAULIEU FOR AN EXCLUSIVE CLOSET SALE CELEBRATING FRENCH STYLE

Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu wearing looks available in the Vestiaire Collective Closet Sale

Paris, November 3rd, 2026 - Vestiaire Collective, the leading global platform for pre-loved luxury fashion, announces an exclusive closet sale with French-Italian actress Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu. With a career spanning more than four decades across French and international cinema and television, she is best known internationally for her acclaimed portrayal of Sylvie Grateau in Netflix's Emily in Paris and Catherine Barneville in the acclaimed French series Call My Agent! (Dix pour cent). Through this exclusive collaboration, Philippine is giving Vestiaire Collective's global community the opportunity to shop a carefully curated selection of over 20 pieces from her personal wardrobe.

The limited-edition sale brings together pieces from some of Philippine's favorite designers, from Fendi and Balenciaga to Barbara Bui, Ami, Chloé, Ralph Lauren, Jimmy Choo, Dior, Yohji Yamamoto, Vivienne Westwood and Patou. The selection spans statement jackets and coats, tailored suits, dresses, shoes and accessories, offering a glimpse into the personal style behind one of France's most recognizable fashion personalities. Each item carries its own history, moving from the wardrobe of a celebrated actress into the hands of a new owner.

Launching in two drops, on November 3rd and December 3rd, the sale will feature a selection of statement outerwear, tailored pieces and accessories, alongside standout items such as a red AMI suit, Jimmy Choo heels, Dior dresses and a Yohji Yamamoto coat. Prices range from approximately 110£ to 1 650£, with all pieces available to purchase globally.

All proceeds from the sale will be donated to Innocence en Danger, supporting the organisation's work to protect children from violence and promote their safety and well-being.

A Style Inspired by Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu

Beyond the limited selection from Philippine's own wardrobe, Vestiaire Collective will also launch a dedicated edit inspired by her signature style. Drawn from the platform's nearly 6 million-item catalogue, the edit will bring together pre-loved pieces reflecting the codes of Philippine's wardrobe, from sophisticated tailoring and statement outerwear to distinctive accessories.

"There are so many memories attached to the clothes we keep, a film, a journey, a particular moment in our lives. Choosing to let some of these pieces go is a little emotional, but there is something beautiful about knowing they will continue their journey in another wardrobe. I'm delighted to partner with Vestiaire Collective to give these pieces a second life while supporting a cause that matters to me." says Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu

The Power of Closet Sales & Circular Fashion

Vestiaire Collective's Closet Sales offer its global community an exclusive opportunity to access the wardrobes of influential personalities while embracing a more circular approach to fashion. By giving pre-loved pieces a new life, these collaborations demonstrate that fashion's most desirable pieces can continue their journey from one wardrobe to another.

"This marks the first time Philippine has opened her personal wardrobe to the public, and we are delighted that she chose Vestiaire Collective to do so. The selection offers a rare glimpse into her distinctive and timeless approach to French style, while giving these much-loved pieces the opportunity to begin a new chapter in the wardrobes of fellow fashion lovers." says Alessandra Mararschio, Marketing Director at Vestiaire Collective.

Vestiaire Collective has previously partnered with Paris Hilton, Jessica Chastain, Rosie Huntington-Whiteley, Antonela Roccuzzo, Laura Dern, Chloe Fineman, and other influential figures on exclusive closet sales, encouraging their communities to leverage the benefits of resale and sustainability.

Shop Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu's Closet

The first drop of Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu's Closet Sale will launch exclusively on Vestiaire Collective on November 3rd, 2026, followed by a second drop on December 3rd, 2026.

Campaign Imagery: HERE
Discover the Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu Closet Sale: HERE
Shop the Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu Closet Sale: HERE
Discover the Philippine-inspired edit: HERE
Learn about Innocence en Danger: HERE

About Vestiaire Collective

Vestiaire Collective is the leading global platform for pre-loved luxury fashion. The company's mission is to transform the fashion industry for a more sustainable future, through empowering its community to shop more consciously. Driven by the philosophy 'Think First, Buy Second', Vestiaire Collective offers a trusted space for its community to prolong the life of its most-loved fashion pieces. The platform's innovative features simplify the selling and buying process, as well as giving its members access to one-of-a-kind wardrobes from around the world. The company boasts a curation of nearly 6 million desirable items. Founded in 2009 in Paris, Vestiaire Collective is active in 70 countries worldwide. To learn more, download the app, visit vestiairecollective.com and follow @vestiaireco on Instagram.

About Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu

Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu is a French-Italian actress whose career spans more than four decades across film and television. She first gained recognition for her role in Coline Serreau's Three Men and a Cradle (1985), for which she received a César Award nomination for Most Promising Actress. She has since appeared in numerous French and international productions, including Call My Agent! (Dix pour cent), The Crown and Emily in Paris, in which she plays Sylvie Grateau, the fabulous Parisian head of a luxury PR agency. She recently starred in 100 Days, a survival feature film based on the true story of Brazilian sailor Amyr Klink, which premiered in Brazil on October 25, 2026. Known for her distinctive screen presence and effortless sense of style, she continues to work across international film and television projects. She currently resides in Paris.

PR CONTACT
Fulvia Lenteu
Account Director
fulvia@aipr.co.uk